

Anti-Money Laundering Statement

1. Our institution (Sparkasse Kraichgau) is subject to German laws designed to combat money laundering and terrorist financing.
2. Our foreign branches are subject to Anti-Money Laundering laws applicable to our head office.
3. Our institution has a written policy designed to combat money-laundering. We confirm that our written policy includes:
 - a) internal controls and procedures
 - b) employee training programs
 - c) independent audit/compliance function
4. We confirm that to the best of our knowledge we are compliant with regulatory requirements as well as internal policies relating to money laundering.
5. We always prove the true identity of our customers as well as the identity of authorized signatories-attorneys and particularly of the ultimate beneficiaries of any significant and unusual amounts. We also check the origin and destination of funds as well as the purpose and the object of transactions. We maintain complete records and information of our customers' identification, account file and correspondence for a specified period of time.
6. We focus our attention on to activities of private, corporate and correspondent customers with countries, that are not compliant with the Anti-Money Laundering laws and keep an eye on the actual embargo or control lists of our government and other governments (FATF / OFAC).
7. Our institution does not provide financial services to "shell banks".
8. The regulatory body / banking authority "Bundesanstalt für Finanzdienstleistungsaufsicht (BaFin)" oversees Anti-Money Laundering and Anti-Terrorist Financial arrangements.
9. Our institution's compliance officer, who is responsible for money laundering prevention controls and procedures, is:

Name: Mr. Peter Walz, Compliance Department
phone: +49 7251773284
FAX: +49 725177903284
email: peter.walz@sparkasse-kraichgau.de

Referring to your questionnaire please find enclosed our anti-money laundering statement. We hope this information is to your best convenience and we close our files in this matter.

Regards